

It is very unlikely that the file is classified as a virus since we don't simulate any virus behaviors (we don't do any changes to the system). But we have noticed that certain vendors have a category like "suspicious, insight" or "unknown". Basically it gets classified as one because it comes from an unknown source and there is no record of this file on the internet. As a result any unknown software is often put in this category.

From:
<https://wiki.lucysecurity.com/> - LUCY

Permanent link:
https://wiki.lucysecurity.com/doku.php?id=malware_simulation:the_malware_sample_gets_detected_blocked_by_my_antivirus

Last update: 2019/07/25 12:49

